SCOTTISH RECORDS ASSOCIATION CONFERENCE

PUBLIC HEALTHCARE IN SCOTLAND BEFORE THE NHS
FRIDAY 4 NOVEMBER 2016, SOUTAR THEATRE, AK BELL LIBRARY, PERTH

09:30-10:00  Registration
10:00-11:25  Session One

   Introduction to the history of Scottish healthcare
   (Dr Deborah Brunton, The Open University)

   The provision of healthcare under the Scottish Poor Law: Central Scotland in the late nineteenth century
   (Emeritus Professor John Stewart, Glasgow Caledonian University)

   The archives of the Royal Scottish National Hospital
   (Sarah Bromage, University of Stirling and Alison Scott, Glasgow Life)

11:25-11:50  Tea and coffee
11:50-13:00  Session Two

   Reflections on Scottish convalescent institutions before the NHS, and the records of the Schaw Convalescent Home at Bearsden.
   (Dr Jenny Cronin, Researcher)

   Peaks and Troughs: The Records of the Royal Hospital for Sick Children, Glasgow
   (Dr Iain Hutchison), Centre for the History of Medicine, Glasgow University)

   With a Q&A Session for all of the speakers from the morning sessions.

13:00-14:00  Lunch (including the AGM of the Scottish Records Association)

   ‘Highland Doctor’ (film courtesy of the National Library of Scotland) will be shown during the lunch break

14:00-15:20  Session Three

   William Macewen, a Glasgow Police Surgeon of the 1870s
   (Ross McGregor, Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow)

   The Centenary Year of the Royal College of Nursing
   (Fiona Bourne, Royal College of Nursing)

   Midwifery matters: Finding sources to shed light upon the 1915 Midwives (Scotland) Act
   (Dr Lindsay Reid, Scottish Midwifery Researcher)

15:20-15:45  Tea and coffee
15:45-16:40  Session Four

   ‘A Charter for Emancipation?’ The Highlands and Islands Medical Service
   (Dr Patricia Whatley, University of Dundee)

   With a Q&A Session for all of the speakers from the afternoon sessions.

Proceedings are due to close at 16:45

The SRA is a registered Scottish charity no: 008896  www.scottishrecordsassociation.org